

Q11 Do you have any other comments about Public Space Protection Orders or anti-social behaviour in public spaces please let us know below

Answered: 25 Skipped: 39

#	RESPONSES	DATE
1	Why has Kington been forgotten ??????	10/11/2017 4:32 PM
2	I am writing on behalf of the Ledbury Food Group. We would like to run an annual food and drink festival featuring local ciders, beers and other alcoholic drinks during which alcohol could be purchased and consumed - within the proposed restricted area for alcohol in Ledbury. A section of the restricted area would be cordoned off and stewarded and the event would run for a short, fixed period of time (a few hours). Please could the new policy be phrased to be clear that such an event may be permitted, subject to the normal scrutiny and conditions that would apply outside the restricted area. I have written a longer request with some background by email to pspoconsultation@herefordshire.gov.uk . Many thanks. Helen Pull helen@ledburyfoodgroup.org	10/10/2017 4:27 PM
3	No enforcement is being used in Ross to stop a regular group of drinkers who are intimidating, leave empty cans, urinate in public and put visitors off.	10/8/2017 9:44 AM
4	The map of Ros areas isn't clear on what area is included: can it be shaded/hatched? Also, please include Cantellupe road Ross, with it's bus shelters and benches.	10/7/2017 8:36 AM
5	Without enforcement this is a waste of time & a "job for the boys"	10/7/2017 7:17 AM
6	They do not appear to be taken seriously.	10/6/2017 10:09 PM
7	No	10/6/2017 2:18 PM
8	ITS NO GOOD IMPLIMENTING THESE THINGS IF YOU HAVENT GOT THE BACK UP TO SUPPORT THEM	10/6/2017 8:52 AM
9	Regularly gathering on the bench - antisocial and innapropriate	10/5/2017 9:02 PM
10	Please enforce them, they are useless if not enforced	10/5/2017 8:50 PM
11	Disgraceful that the first thing most tourists remember about this lovely town is the people who do not care for themselves or their surroundings, but only have a thought of the next tin of Cider.	10/5/2017 5:21 PM
12	Same rules should apply to everyone,, and when they are moved from one place shouldn't be allowed to just go to another part of town, and cause the same nusience	10/5/2017 3:12 PM
13	As long as police are not able to take advantage of any new rules where they can just take stuff off people "just for a wrong look" or something. I often take a walk to the shops which may include going through a no alcohol designated space - I hope this would not mean I lose my purchase if just passing through. Some people can be trusted to drink responsibly, including in some public spaces, and it a shame that some places have had to be designated for no alcohol consumption as they are pretty/nice places to relax, and it tends to be just a few people who ruin it for the rest. This just seems like another way towards a Nanny state. Regarding the fine, I also hope there is some discretion involved when it involves people who are homeless.	10/5/2017 3:06 PM
14	More needs to be done to stop it it's especially detrimental to businesses in the area.	10/5/2017 11:23 AM
15	I do not think the fines work. Many of the people drinking do not pay the fines so there is absolutely no deterrent. I very rarely see police in Ross so who will monitor this????	10/5/2017 11:03 AM
16	When there is a PSPO it does not seem to be enforced by the police so the majority of the drinking and anti social behaviour continues as they know they won't get stopped by the enforcers. Perhaps Enforcement Officers could also be used alongside the police as their are in town for parking etc and are best placed to see it going on during the day. This could also put people in a better frame of mind about them instead of looking as though they are a down on parking etc as at the moment in time.	10/5/2017 10:14 AM
17	We need more 'on site' police officers in town to enforce this.	10/4/2017 7:31 PM

Public Space Protection Order (PSPO) survey

18	This shouldn't happen. Drinking in public has never been an issue for anyone apart from people who NEED something to worry about. Don't listen to the old whining of miserable people, save the money and put it to use elsewhere.	10/1/2017 4:44 AM
19	Enforce existing alcohol ban.	9/29/2017 5:42 PM
20	There is no point in having these orders unless they are enforced. There is little if any enforcement at the moment so why bother if you will not have the resources to enforce. Also those street drinkers are unlikely to have the funds to pay a FPN so it would be a waste of effort	9/21/2017 6:17 PM
21	Issuing a fixed penalty to a drunk street drinker is not something that will get paid.	9/12/2017 8:56 PM
22	Whilst I'm in favour of this I don't think it goes far enough geographically for example there are problems at Widemarch common and the play area behind the courtyard, so by focusing on a tight city centre area you are just going to push the problem towards play areas close to residential areas.	9/7/2017 3:08 PM
23	I am not sure if any of the people caught drinking will have the means to pay a fine. A day in the cells may be better!	9/6/2017 8:13 PM
24	The problem is lack of bins & emptying the bins. Alcohol cans are everywhere because of this, but drinking outside should be fine unless we want to slowly turn into a police state where no fun is allowed.	9/1/2017 9:43 AM
25	Not needed in Hereford	8/31/2017 5:29 PM