Premises History

10. The premises were first licensed in June 2013 as a takeaway for late night refreshment. Since it has been licensed, there have been the following changes:

13. 5 July 2016 - a variation was submitted to extend late night refreshment Monday-Sunday: 23:00 - 03:30 and to amend the conditions relating to door staff from 22:00 start time to 01:00 start time which was granted.

Late Night Refreshment:

Monday-Sunday: 23:00 - 03:30

Non Standard Hours: None

18. The licence is also subject to a number of conditions.

Circumstances leading to the review

19. As part of a joint partnership an operation took place on Saturday 28 April 2018.
20. At 21:55 hrs officers from the UK Border and Immigration Agency, supported by officers from West Mercia Police, attended the premises known as Munchies as a result of intelligence that a person with no right to be in the UK or to work in the UK was employed at the premises.
21. One male was working in the premises behind the service counter, he was detained at the premises as it was established that he was in the country illegally. The employment of illegal immigrants is a serious criminal offence and undermines the licensing objective of the prevention of crime and disorder.

22. A statement from the UK Border Agency in connection with the enforcement visit is attached at appendix 3.
23. As a result, this review was launched.

24. No representations have been received from other responsible authorities or members of the public.

Equality duty

26. There are no equality issues in relation to the content of this report.

Any of the steps outlined in section 1 of this report may have financial implications for a licensee's business and livelihood and/or may have impact upon the day to day lives of residents living in close proximity to the premises.
28. Article 8(i) of the European Convention of Human Rights provides that everyone has the right to respect for his/her private and family life and his/her home (which includes business premises). This right may be interfered with by the council on a number of grounds including the protection of rights and freedoms of others. The First Protocol – Article 1 – also provides that every person is entitled to the peaceful enjoyment of his possessions and shall not be deprived of his possessions except in the public interest and conditions provided for by law. Members must accordingly make a decision which is proportionate to the hearing and endeavour to find a balance between the rights of the applicant, residents and the community as a whole.

Financial implications

29. There are unlikely to be any financial implications for the authority at this time.

Legal Implications

30. The licensing authority must have regard to the promotion of the four licensing objectives namely; the prevention of crime and disorder; public safety; the prevention of public nuisance; and the protection of children from harm in exercising its functions under the Licensing Act 2003. Further regard should be had to the statutory guidance under Section 182 of the Act and the Council's own statement of licensing policy. The options available to the licensing authority are set out in section 1 of this report.
31. The Committee should be aware of a number of stated cases which have appeared before the Administrative Court and are binding on the Licensing Authority.
32. The case of Daniel Thwaites Plc v Wirral Borough Magistrates' Court (Case No: CO/5533/2006) at the High Court of Justice Queen's Bench Division Administrative Court on 6 May 2008, [2008] EWHC 838 (Admin), 2008 WL 1968943, Before the Honourable Mrs Justice Black.

33. In this case it was summed up that: -

A licensing authority must have regard to guidance issued by the Secretary of State under section 182. Licensing authorities may depart from it if they have reason to do so but will need to give full reasons for their actions.

34. Furthermore the Thwaites case established that only conditions should be attached to a licence with a view to promoting the Licensing objectives and that 'real evidence' must be presented to support the reason for imposing these conditions.

35. This judgement is further supported in the case of The Queen on the Application of Bristol Council v Bristol Magistrates' Court, CO/6920/2008 High Court of Justice Queen's Bench Division The Administrative Court, 24 February 2009, [2009] EWHC 625 (Admin) 2009 WL 648859 in which it was said:

'Licensing authorities should only impose conditions which are necessary and proportionate for the promotion for licensing objectives'.

36. In addition to this it was stated that any condition attached to the licence should be an enforceable condition.

Right of Appeal

37. Schedule 5 gives a right of appeal which states:

An appeal may be made within 21 days to the Magistrates Court by the police or any person who has made a relevant representation and also by the premises licence holder once notified of the licensing authority's decision.

38. The decision of the licensing authority, following the review hearing, will not have effect until the end of the period allowed for appeal, or until the appeal is disposed of.

Risk Management

39. There is little risk associated with the decision at this time as the legislation allows a right of appeal to the Magistrates Court within a period of 21 days of being notified of the decision in writing.
