Where your application includes off-supplies of alcohol and you intend to provide a place for consumption of these off-supplies you must include a description of where the place will be and its proximity to the premises.

The Barn is situated at the back end of the carpark and butts up against the back of the Feather's Hotel. It has no close residential properties and only has the back end of the shops from the high street as neighbours. It has its own yard in between the Feathers and the building and has two meters perimeter around the carpark side and the area in front of the Master's House (town library). I have no intention of selling alcohol as off-supplies. It is insured for 100 people.

If 5,000 or more people are expected to attend the premises at any one time, state the number expected to attend

Where taking place in a building or other structure tick as appropriate. Indoors may include a tent.

State type of activity to be authorised, if not already stated, and give relevant further details, for example (but not exclusively) whether or not music will be amplified or unamplified.

Music will be both amplified and unamplified depending on the event. We have already held music events here last summer for the poetry festival and for H art week on temporary event notices and had no complaints. Some events were pin-drop (unamplified) and some were amplified. We also had events for the Ledbury celebration day and some were outside in the day and again we had no complaints, only a considerable amount of support.

LICENSING OBJECTIVES

Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b,c,d,e)

List here steps you will take to promote all four licensing objectives together.

We have run about 10 events last summer at the poetry festival and H Art week. We were absolutely vigilant about any disruptive behaviour especially at closing time and when clients were leaving the venue. We had no complaints from local people, and there were no hints of anything disruptive. The atmosphere was always respectful and calm. The public were greeted at the door. We always served and will continue to serve tea, coffee, soft drinks and food, and the onus was on local ales, cider and wines rather than spirits.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

My staff will be given strict instructions not to serve anyone who is drunk. I will always make sure there are enough staff so problems are easy to deal with. We obviously will be vigilant with anything that could cause a problem including drugs, violence, and anything that could cause the nearest neighbours to complain. We know and understand the area and that includes other pubs. We do not want to be associated with the rowdy football scene. The staff will be instructed to always use the legal measurements when serving. There will always be plenty of other options to alcohol available. The Barn will always kept clear of bottles and empty glasses.

c) Public safety

We will maintain a strict observation on clientelle and anything that looks like it might get out of hand will be nipped in the bud to maintain the safety of the public. There will be a strict watchful eye to make sure noone tries to drive home if they have had to much alcohol to drink. Staff will be shown the ways to tackle a rowdy group by demonstrating how to detach a trouble maker from the rest of the group and also how to depersonalize a refusal to serve someone by reference to the law.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Excessive drinking will always be discouraged. If we suspect that there might be a problem we will install CCTV cameras but based on the previous events I suspect that we will not have anything to cause a public nuisance. Any person who is drunk and attempts to enter the venue will be prevented from doing so. At closing time the clientele will be supervised as they leave to make sure that any merriment does not cause a nuisance. We will always stick to last orders and the end of the night timings.

e) The protection of children from harm

Any children will always be protected but evenings will be mainly adults so I really do not see a problem here. The bar staff will constantly be assessing younger looking clientele and any who look 25 or younger will be asked to provide ID. The bar area will have a picture of the cards that are genuine according to the Proof of Age Standards Scheme for the staff to refer to. Also the music will never be loud enough to damage anyone's ears including children's.

Section 19 of 21

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current Immigration Status Document issued by the Home Office to the holder with an endorsement indicating that the named person is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK or has no time limit on their stay in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the UK, when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.
- A birth or adoption certificate issued in the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man or Ireland when produced in combination with an official document giving the person's permanent National Insurance number and their name issued by a Government agency or a previous employer.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.
