NOTES*Guidance issued under section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003, Section S18(7)*Relevant, vexatious and frivolous representations

5.73 A representation would only be “relevant” if it relates to the likely effect of the grant of the licence on the promotion of at least one of the licensing objectives....

5.75 It is for the licensing authority to determine on its merits whether any representation by an interested party is frivolous or vexatious....

The licensing authority must determine this and make the decision on the basis of what might ordinarily be considered to be vexatious or frivolous. Vexation may arise because of disputes between rival businesses and local knowledge will therefore be invaluable in considering such matters. Frivolous representations would be essentially categorised by a lack of seriousness....

Licensing Authorities power to exercise substantive discretionary powers.*The British Beer and Pub Association (2) The Association of Licensed Multiple Retailers (3) The British Institute of Inn keeping V Canterbury City Council.

Contesting the validity of the Licensing policy that asks for certain requirements before the application has been submitted. In the summing up the Judge states; The scheme of the legislation is to leave it to applicants to determine what to include in their applications, subject to the requirements of Section 17 and the Regulations as to the prescribed form and the inclusion of a statement of specified matters in the operating schedule. An applicant who makes the right judgement, so that the application gives rise to no relevant representations, is entitled to the grant of a licence without the imposition of conditions. The licensing authority has no power at all to lay down the contents of an application and has no power to assess an application, or exercise substantive discretionary powers in relation to it, unless there are relevant representations and the decision – making function under section 18 (3) is engaged.

20. Background Papers

- Public Representation Form
- Environmental health & Trading Standards Comments
- Application Form
- Police Authority Comments

Background papers are available for inspection in Committee Room 1, The Town Hall 30 minutes before the start of the hearing.

NOTES*Guidance issued under section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003, Section S18(7)*Relevant, vexatious and frivolous representations

5.73 A representation would only be “relevant” if it relates to the likely effect of the grant of the licence on the promotion of at least one of the licensing objectives....

5.75 It is for the licensing authority to determine on its merits whether any representation by an interested party is frivolous or vexatious....

The licensing authority must determine this and make the decision on the basis of what might ordinarily be considered to be vexatious or frivolous. Vexation may arise because of disputes between rival businesses and local knowledge will therefore be invaluable in considering such matters. Frivolous representations would be essentially categorised by a lack of seriousness....

The operating schedule

5.46 The operating schedule will form part of the completed application form for a premises licence. An operating schedule should include information which is necessary to enable any responsible authority or interested party to assess whether the steps to be taken to promote licensing objectives are satisfactory.

An operating schedule must also set out the following details:

the relevant licensable activities to be conducted on the premises;
the times during which it is proposed that the relevant licensable activities are to take place (including the times during each day of the week, during particular holiday periods and during particular seasons, if it is likely that the times would be different during different parts of the year);

Pub games

5.15 Games commonly played in pubs and social and youth clubs like pool, darts, table tennis and billiards may fall within the definition of indoor sports in Schedule 1, but normally they would not be played for the entertainment of spectators but for the private enjoyment of the participants. As such, they would not normally constitute the provision of regulated entertainment, and the facilities provided (even if a pub provides them with a view to profit) do not fall within the limited list of entertainment facilities in that Schedule (see paragraph 5.11 above).

It is only when such games take place in the presence of an audience and are provided to, at least in part, entertain that audience, for example, a darts championship competition, that the activity would become licensable.

Incidental music

5.18 The incidental performance of live music and incidental playing of recorded music may not be regarded as the provision of regulated entertainment activities under the 2003 Act in certain circumstances. This is where they are incidental to another activity which is not itself entertainment or the provision of entertainment facilities.

So, for example, a juke box played in a public house at moderate levels would normally be regarded as incidental to the other activities there, but one played at high volume would not benefit from this exemption. Stand-up comedy is not regulated entertainment and musical accompaniment incidental to the main performance would not make it a licensable activity.

Licensing Authorities power to exercise substantive discretionary powers.

The British Beer and Pub Association (2) The Association of Licensed Multiple Retailers (3) The British Institute of Inn keeping V Canterbury City Council.

Contesting the validity of the Licensing policy that asks for certain requirements before the application has been submitted. An applicant who makes the right judgement, so that the application gives rise to no relevant representations, is entitled to the grant of a licence without the imposition of conditions. The licensing authority has no power at all to lay down the contents of an application and has no power to assess an application, or exercise substantive discretionary powers in relation to it, unless there are relevant representations and the decision – making function under section 18 (3) is engaged.

Clarification has also been asked for in respect of the meaning of 'Closing on the non-standard days listed in Section M' which is shown under 'non-standard timings of 'Hours Premises Open to Public' and also the actual hours the applicant applies for on Bank Holidays in respect of films, indoor sporting events and recorded music.

15. Herefordshire Council Licensing Policy

16. Options:-

It is for the committee to take such steps below as it considers necessary for the promotion of the licensing objectives:

- Grant the licence subject to modified conditions to that of the operating schedule where the committee considers it necessary for the promotion of the licensing objectives and add mandatory condition set out in the Licensing Act 2003.

17. Background Papers

- Public Representation Forms
- Police Authority Comments
- Environmental health & Trading Standards Comments
- Application Form

Background papers are available for inspection in the Committee Room 1, Town Hall, St Owens Street, Hereford 30 minutes before the start of the hearing.

NOTES*Guidance issued under section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003, Section S18(7)*Relevant, vexatious and frivolous representations

- 5.73 A representation would only be “relevant” if it relates to the likely effect of the grant of the licence on the promotion of at least one of the licensing objectives....
- 5.75 It is for the licensing authority to determine on its merits whether any representation by an interested party is frivolous or vexatious....

The licensing authority must determine this and make the decision on the basis of what might ordinarily be considered to be vexatious or frivolous. Vexation may arise because of disputes between rival businesses and local knowledge will therefore be invaluable in considering such matters. Frivolous representations would be essentially categorised by a lack of seriousness....

The operating schedule

- 5.46 The operating schedule will form part of the completed application form for a premises licence. An operating schedule should include information, which is necessary to enable any responsible authority or interested party to assess whether the steps to be taken to promote licensing objectives are satisfactory.

An operating schedule must also set out the following details:

- the relevant licensable activities to be conducted on the premises;
- the times during which it is proposed that the relevant licensable activities are to take place (including the times during each day of the week, during particular holiday periods and during particular seasons, if it is likely that the times would be different during different parts of the year);

Pub games

- 5.15 Games commonly played in pubs and social and youth clubs like pool, darts, table tennis and billiards may fall within the definition of indoor sports in Schedule 1, but normally they would not be played for the entertainment of spectators but for the private enjoyment of the participants. As such, they would not normally constitute the provision of regulated entertainment, and the facilities provided (even if a pub provides them with a view to profit) do not fall within the limited list of entertainment facilities in that Schedule (see paragraph 5.11 above).

It is only when such games take place in the presence of an audience and are provided to, at least in part, entertain that audience, for example, a darts championship competition, that the activity would become licensable.

Incidental music

5.18 The incidental performance of live music and incidental playing of recorded music may not be regarded as the provision of regulated entertainment activities under the 2003 Act in certain circumstances. This is where they are incidental to another activity which is not itself entertainment or the provision of entertainment facilities.

So, for example, a juke box played in a public house at moderate levels would normally be regarded as incidental to the other activities there, but one played at high volume would not benefit from this exemption. Stand-up comedy is not regulated entertainment and musical accompaniment incidental to the main performance would not make it a licensable activity.

Licensing Authorities power to exercise substantive discretionary powers.

The British Beer and Pub Association (2) The Association of Licensed Multiple Retailers (3) The British Institute of Inn keeping V Canterbury City Council.

Contesting the validity of the Licensing policy that asks for certain requirements before the application has been submitted. In the summing up the Judge states; The scheme of the legislation is to leave it to applicants to determine what to include in their applications, subject to the requirements of Section 17 and the Regulations as to the prescribed form and the inclusion of a statement of specified matters in the operating schedule. An applicant who makes the right judgement, so that the application gives rise to no relevant representations, is entitled to the grant of a licence without the imposition of conditions. The licensing authority has no power at all to lay down the contents of an application and has no power to assess an application, or exercise substantive discretionary powers in relation to it, unless there are relevant representations and the decision – making function under section 18 (3) is engaged.

5.46 The operating schedule will form part of the completed application form for a premises licence. An operating schedule should include information which is necessary to enable any responsible authority or interested party to assess whether the steps to be taken to promote licensing objectives are satisfactory.

An operating schedule must also set out the following details:

the relevant licensable activities to be conducted on the premises;
the times during which it is proposed that the relevant licensable activities are to take place (including the times during each day of the week, during particular holiday periods and during particular seasons, if it is likely that the times would be different during different parts of the year);

Spontaneous music, singing and dancing

- 5.19 The spontaneous performance of music, singing or dancing does not amount to the provision of regulated entertainment and is not a licensable activity. The relevant part of the 2003 Act to consider in this context is paragraph 1(3) of Schedule 1 to the Act. This states that the second condition which must apply before an activity constitutes the provision of regulated entertainment is that the premises (meaning "any place") at which the entertainment is, or entertainment facilities are, provided are made available for the purpose, or purposes which include the purpose, of enabling the entertainment concerned to take place. In the case of genuinely spontaneous music (including singing) and dancing, the place where the entertainment takes place will not have been made available to those taking part for that purpose

Ad-hoc events

The application applies for up to 12 other occasions per annum at the applicant's discretion (occasionals).

DCMS Guidance

Under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003 The Secretary for Culture, Media & Sport (DCMS) issued Guidance in respect of the Act.

Paragraph 6.11 is titled 'Relaxation of opening hours for local, national and international occasions'. The guidance in respect of this is that it will be open to the Secretary of State to extend hours on these special occasions .e.g. World Cup

ACPO Guidance

The Association of Chief Police Officer (ACPO) have issued a letter in respect of this matter which states 'To maintain a consistent approach across the country ACPO suggest that Constabularies consider the following approach in relation to these applications - No more than 12 extensions per premises per year (excluding applications made under TENS) should be allowed.

A minimum of 7 days notice to police and the licensing authority.

An absolute veto for police in respect of any of these occasions.

It is, of course, open to all the other responsible authorities to raise objections if they consider it necessary."

West Mercia Police

It is known that the West Mercia Police do not endorse this guidance issued by ACPO. PC Steve Thomas will explain to the committee the current position for their perspective.
