1. Selflessness

Holders of public office should act solely in terms of the public interest.

2. Integrity

Holders of public office must avoid placing themselves under any obligation to people or organisations that might try inappropriately to influence them in their work. Purpose

To consider an application for a grant of a premises licence in respect of The Agents House, Whitney Village Road, Whitney on Wye, Herefordshire. HR3 6EH under the Licensing Act 2003.

Recommendation(s)

That:

The sub committee determine the application with a view to promoting the licensing objectives in the overall interests of the local community. They should give appropriate weight to:

- a) The steps that are appropriate to promote the licensing objectives,
- b) The representations (including supporting information) presented by all parties,
- c) The guidance issued to local authorities under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003, and
- d) The Herefordshire Council Statement of Licensing Policy 2020 – 2025.

Reasons for Recommendations

Ensures compliance with the Licensing Act 2003

Alternative options

1. There are a number of options open to the sub-committee:
 - a) Grant the licence subject to conditions that are consistent with the operating schedule accompanying the application and the mandatory conditions set out in the Licensing Act 2003,
 - b) Grant the licence subject to modified conditions to that of the operating schedule where the sub-committee considers it appropriate for the promotion of the licensing objectives and add mandatory conditions set out in the Licensing Act 2003,
 - c) To exclude from the scope of the licence any of the licensable activities to which the application relates
 - d) To refuse to specify a person in the licence as the premise supervisor, or
 - e) To refuse the application

Key considerations

Licence Application

2. The application for the grant of a premises licence has received relevant representations and is therefore brought before the sub-committee for determination.
3. Herefordshire Council Statement of Licensing Policy 2020 to 2025 states “All representation must be ‘relevant’, for example they must be about the likely effect of the grant of the application”. This followed paragraph 8.57 in the s182 Guidance which uses the same wording.
4. The details of the application are:

Applicant	Lisinnnes Ltd
Agent	Not applicable
Type of application:	Date received:	28 Days consultation ended:
Grant	24 August 2023 28 day consultation started: 25 August 2023	21 September 2023

Summary of Application

5. The application can be found at appendix 1 and requests the grant of a premises licence to allow the following licensable activities, during the hours shown;

Recorded Music (Indoors/Outdoors)

Friday 19:00 – 23:00

Saturday 12:00 – 16:30 & 19:00 – 23:00

Sunday 12:00 – 23:00

Sale/Supply of Alcohol (consumption on the premises)

Monday – Sunday 12:00 – 23:00

Under the Live Music Act 2012 (as amended), an alcohol licenced premises can have live and/or recorded music from 08:00 – 23:00 for up to 500 people, without the need for these activities to be on a premises licence

Summary of Representations

6. Two (2) representations have been received from the responsible authorities, Trading Standards and the Licensing Authority. The sets of conditions proposed have been accepted by the applicant and can be found at Appendix 2.

7. Three (3) relevant representations have been received from members of the public in line with the licensing objective Prevention of Public Nuisance, which the licensing authority have accepted as being relevant.
8. Following sight of the public representations, the applicant decided to withdraw the need for recorded music off the application, therefore two (2) of the representations fell away.
9. On 26 September 2023, the licensing authority wrote to the objector (as they wished to remain anonymous) outlining the application made and the conditions proposed and agreed to adhere to, in the anticipation it would alleviate any concerns they may have had. (Appendix 3). To date, the licensing authority has not received a reply.
10. As a result, one (1) representation made by the public is deemed relevant and can be found at Appendix 4.

Community impact

11. Any decision may have an impact on the local community.

Environmental Impact

12. This report is in relation to a premises license under the Licensing Act 2003 and as such there are minimal environmental impacts for the council.

Equality duty

13. Under section 149 of the Equality Act 2010, the 'general duty' on public authorities is set out as follows:

A public authority must, in the exercise of its functions, have due regard to the need to –

- a) eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under this Act;
 - b) advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it;
 - c) Foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.
14. There are no equality issues in relation to the content of this report.
 15. This report has human rights implications for both the premises licence holder and the residents from the local neighbourhood. Any of the steps outlined in section 1 of this report may have financial implications for a licensee's business and livelihood and/or may have impact upon the day to day lives of residents living in close proximity to the premises.

16. Article 8(i) of the European Convention of Human Rights provides that everyone has the right to respect for his/her private and family life and his/her home (which includes business premises). This right may be interfered with by the council on a number of grounds including the protection of rights and freedoms of others. The First Protocol – Article 1 – also provides that every person is entitled to the peaceful enjoyment of his possessions and shall not be deprived of his possessions except in the public interest and conditions provided for by law. Members must accordingly make a decision which is proportionate to the hearing and endeavour to find a balance between the rights of the applicant, residents and the community as a whole.

Resource implications

17. This report is in relation to a premises license under the Licensing Act 2003 and as such there are minimal resource implications for the council.

Financial implications

18. There are unlikely to be any financial implications for the council as licensing authority at this time.

Legal implications

19. As relevant representations have been received, the sub committee must determine the application under Section 3.5.7 (c) of the Herefordshire Council constitution. The representations must relate to the licensing objectives and the sub committee must determine the likely effect of the grant of the premises licences on the promotion of the licensing objectives.
20. The licensing authority must have regard to the promotion of the four licensing objectives namely; the prevention of crime and disorder; public safety; the prevention of public nuisance; and the protection of children from harm in exercising its functions under the Licensing Act 2003. Further regard should be had to the statutory guidance under Section 182 of the Act and the Council's own statement of licensing policy. The options available to the licensing authority are set out in section 1 of this report.
21. The sub committee should be aware of a number of stated cases which have appeared before the Administrative Court and are binding on the Licensing Authority.
22. The case of Daniel Thwaites Plc v Wirral Borough Magistrates' Court (Case No: CO/5533/2006) at the High Court of Justice Queen's Bench Division Administrative Court on 6 May 2008, [2008] EWHC 838 (Admin), 2008 WL 1968943, Before the Honourable Mrs Justice Black. In this case it was summed up that: -
23. A licensing authority must have regard to guidance issued by the Secretary of State under section 182. Licensing authorities may depart from it if they have reason to do so but will need to give full reasons for their actions.
24. Furthermore the Thwaites case established that only conditions should be attached to a licence with a view to promoting the Licensing objectives and that 'real evidence' must be presented to support the reason for imposing these conditions.

25. This judgement is further supported in the case of The Queen on the Application of Bristol Council v Bristol Magistrates' Court, CO/6920/2008 High Court of Justice Queen's Bench Division The Administrative Court, 24 February 2009, [2009] EWHC 625 (Admin) 2009 WL 648859 in which it was said:

'Licensing authorities should only impose conditions which are necessary and proportionate for the promotion for licensing objectives'.

26. In addition to this it was stated that any condition attached to the licence should be an enforceable condition.

Right of Appeal

27. Schedule 5, Part 1, Section 1 of the Licensing Act 2003 gives a right of appeal which states:

Rejection of applications relating to premises licences

(1) Where a licensing authority-

(a) Rejects an application for a premises licence under section 18,

The applicant may appeal against the decision.

Schedule 5, Part 1, Section 2 of the Licensing Act give a right of appeal which states:

Decision to grant premises licence or impose conditions etc.

(1) This paragraph applies where a licensing authority grants a premises licence under section 18.

(2) The holder of the licence may appeal against any decision—

(a) to impose conditions on the licence under subsection (2)(a) or (3)(b) of that section, or

(b) to take any step mentioned in subsection (4)(b) or (c) of that section (exclusion of licensable activity or refusal to specify person as premises supervisor).

(3) Where a person who made relevant representations in relation to the application desires to contend—

(a) that the licence ought not to have been granted, or

(b) that, on granting the licence, the licensing authority ought to have imposed different or additional conditions, or to have taken a step mentioned in subsection (4)(b) or (c) of that section, he may appeal against the decision.

(4) In sub-paragraph (3) "relevant representations" has the meaning given in section 18(6).

28. Appeals should be made to the Magistrates Court and must be made within 21 days beginning with the day on which the appellant was notified by the licensing authority of the decision appealed against

Risk management

29. There is little risk associated with the decision at this time as the legislation allows a right of appeal to the Magistrates Court within a period of 21 days of being notified of the decision in writing.

Consultees

30. All responsible authorities and members of the public living within Herefordshire.

Section 19 of 21

NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

Documents which demonstrate entitlement to work in the UK

- An expired or current passport showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK [please see note below about which sections of the passport to copy].
- An expired or current passport or national identity card showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Registration Certificate or document certifying permanent residence issued by the Home Office to a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A Permanent Residence Card issued by the Home Office to the family member of a national of a European Economic Area country or Switzerland.
- A current Biometric Immigration Document (Biometric Residence Permit) issued by the Home Office to the holder indicating that the person named is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.
- A current passport endorsed to show that the holder is exempt from immigration control, is allowed to stay indefinitely in the UK, has the right of abode in the UK, or has no time limit on their stay in the UK.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

Dear XXXXXXXX

GRANT OF PREMISES LICENCE PREMISES: THE AGENTS HOUSE

Thank you for your representation in respect of the above premises

The matter will be decided at licensing sub-committee due to your representation, a date/time will be confirmed at a later date, though will need to be heard by 19 October 2023 and will take place via video conferencing.

As you have made representation, you will be permitted to speak at the hearing, though you will need to supply us with an email address in order for that to happen.

A copy of your representation has been sent to the applicant with your details redacted, however we must advise, an applicant may very well work out where and whom the rep has come from.

In this instance, the applicant has asked us to share the following with you;

The application relates to the sale/supply of alcohol for consumption on the premises only, as they have removed from the application the need for recorded music indoors and outdoors (which was on weekends).

The application seeks the sale of alcohol for consumption by guests of the B&B inside, whether that would be alongside meals, afternoon teas and also on the balcony as well as a large garden.

To Prevent Public Nuisance Playing music and selling alcohol would disturb the relative peace and quiet of the neighbourhood. Containing the activity within the property may not be possible. Two other licensed properties are located within 100 metres. The alcohol and music is proposed for the residents of The Agents House only, surely invitations to friends who may be residing nearby could lead to a bigger gathering than the premises is licensed for.
