

Vision

“To create in Herefordshire an environment where different communities, the traditionally nomadic and the traditionally settled, live in harmony and where all have access to the basic needs and benefits which characterise an inclusive society. Herefordshire will be a place where people, organizations and businesses working together within an outstanding natural environment will bring about sustainable prosperity and well being.”