

8. Question from Mr Peter Crowther, Hereford

How can the council not consider reopening the Local Education Authority pool after the quality of children's teaching has substantially decreased since its closure." This is clearly evident from the fact that the amount of swimming badges completed by schoolchildren in Herefordshire has dropped from 212 badges per year to 108 per year since the pool was closed.