- 17 The Committees attention is drawn to the Guidance issued under Section 182 which states at:
- 13.29 The effect of adopting a special policy of this kind is to create a rebuttable presumption that applications for new premises licences or club premises certificates or variations that are likely to add to the existing cumulative impact will normally be refused, following relevant representations, unless the applicant can demonstrate in their operating schedule that there will be no negative cumulative impact on one or more of the licensing objectives.
- 18 The Committee should be aware of a number of stated cases which have appeared before the Administrative Court and are binding on the Licensing Authority.

- 20 In this case it was summed up that: -
A licensing authority must have regard to guidance issued by the Secretary of State under section 182. Licensing authorities may depart from it if they have reason to do so but will need to give full reasons for their actions.
- 21 The case of R. (on the application of JD Wetherspoon Plc) v Guildford BC, 2006 EWHC 815 (Admin) in the High Court of Justice in the Queens Bench Division Administrative Court, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, WC2A 2LL on Tuesday 11th April, 2006 before : The Honourable Mr Justice Beaton.
- 22 This case involved an application by JD Wetherspoon PLC at their Lloyds No.1 Premises in Guildford which involved an increase in hours within an area of Special Policy. In this case it was said that; - 'the words "material variation" are capable of including a variation of hours if such variation is directly relevant to the cumulative impact policy.'

Contesting the validity of the Licensing policy that asks for certain requirements before the application has been submitted. In the summing up the Judge states; the scheme of the legislation is to leave it to applicants to determine what to include in their applications, subject to the requirements of Section 17 and the Regulations as to the prescribed form and the inclusion of a statement of specified matters in the operating schedule. An applicant, who makes the right judgement, so that the application gives rise to no relevant representations, is entitled to the grant of a licence without the imposition of conditions. The licensing authority has no power at all to lay down the contents of an application and has no power to assess an application, or exercise substantive discretionary powers in relation to it, unless there are relevant representations and the decision – making function under section 18 (3) is engaged.
