

Appendix one

The following document is a synopsis of all research around Herefordshire's demography, detailing Older People.

Probably the briefest summary of the findings is that the sector of the population who are currently eligible to access Older People's Services looks set to grow dramatically.