

Contents

- 1. Introduction.
- 2. Meetings Of The Working Group.
- 3. Method Of Gathering Evidence.
- 4. Evidence Gathering.
- 5. Legal Implications.
  - 5.1. Synopsis of the legal position.
- 6. Planning Position.
  - 6.1. When Do Polytunnels Need Planning Permission?
  - 6.2. National And Local Planning Policy.
  - 6.3. Effect On AONB And Elsewhere.
  - 6.4. Environmental Effects.
  - 6.5. Market Value Of Property.
  - 6.6. Removal Of Metal Hoops Not In Use.
- 7. Some Of The Key Issues Raised During The Review.
  - 7.1. Introduction.
  - 7.2. The Economic And Tourism Issues.
  - 7.3. Other Local Authorities Contacted.
  - 7.4. Economic Benefit To The Growers.
  - 7.5. Visual Effects.
  - 7.6. Effect On 'Area Of Outstanding Natural Beauty' (AONB).
  - 7.7. Effect On Environment.
  - 7.8. Distance From Neighbouring Property.
  - 7.9. Use Of Landscape
  - 7.10. The Time Period A Polytunnel Is In Situ
  - 7.11. Notification To Parish Councils And Neighbours
  - 7.12. Market Value Of Neighbouring Properties
  - 7.13. Site Management.
  - 7.14. Metal Hoops And Y Frames.
  - 7.15. Pilot Scheme For New Types Of Plastic.
  - 7.16. Consultation With Neighbours.
  - 7.17. Ground Cover And Fleece.
  - 7.18. Other Crops.
  - 7.19. Planning Information.

- 8. Measuring The Code.
- 9. Conclusion.
- 10. Acknowledgments.

Appendixes.

1. Full Scoping Statement for the review.
2. The current Voluntary Code of Practice to Control the use of Polytunnels in Herefordshire.
3. Witnesses interviewed by the Polyunnel Review Working Group.
4. Recommended Revised Code for ease of comparison.
5. Glossary.