To Prevent Public Nuisance

- ~~We welcome anyone interested in the future of the village and its residents, however we have concerns re the reopening and activities of the Live and Let Live pub.~~
- ~~1) Notice Statos L&LL (pub) is on outskirts!,,,,, surely ...nearer the hub and opposite to a number of residential properties check ,WR6 5SP, Wheatsheaf pub is nearer to outskirts.~~
- 2) Undersigned has been resident for 30 plus years and past disruption levels have been far from satisfactory the main nuisance being noise from outside drinkers and smokers especially during music evenings.
- ~~3) We object to what were the original pub licensed hours being extended especially for music surely most people have had the majority of their drink way before 10.00 or 10.30 closing time and a few "last men standing" wouldn't add much to the profits.~~
- ~~4) Licence to 12.00 midnight does not mean at a few minutes past everyone leaves, ,in fact a drink up period of anything up to an hour is not unusual, then the start up and drive off of cars and motor bikes and goodnight chatter can last till the early hours.~~
- ~~5) The music, whether recorded or live, especially in summer with outside events or when windows and doors are open can cause much personal disturbance.
The location of most Old Forge houses have their main living and sleeping rooms facing the pub as do the garden and seating area.~~

5) contd..

~~Point of interest....at no time to my knowledge has anyone associated with the reopening of the pub found it necessary to talk to Old Forge residents, a number of whom have been in Whitbourne for many years.~~

~~6) Revenue from part of the highly successful village shop comes from its sale of alcohol, soft drinks and snack items. Has the effect of the L & LL been adequately considered.~~

~~Finally once trading commences what checks and balances will be put in place to at least prevent any unacceptable Customs and Practices prevailing. I am not familiar with procedures, but can a 3 or 6 month review involving the views of local residents be a possibility?~~

In the past, before Enterprise Inns involvement, the L & LL operated profitably with hours of opening to 11.00pm during the week and 10.30pm on Sunday. Live music was on average once a month. I request that we go back to this.
