Please state the ground(s) for review (please read guidance note 1)

On the 17 December 2018, a joint Police and UK Border Agency operation took place at The Taste of Raj, 67 St Owen Street, Hereford

Two males were detained at the premises as both had no right to be in the UK or to work in the UK.

This matter undermines the licensing objective of the prevention of crime and disorder.

Please provide as much information as possible to support the application
(please read guidance note 2)

The Taste of Raj, 67 St Owen Street, Hereford is a well established licensed restaurant.

The premises licence is the name of Ataur Rahman – who is also the named designated premises supervisor.

At 1759hrs on Monday 17 December 2018 joint Police and UK Border and Immigration Agency operation took place at the premises. This was intelligence lead.

The premises were searched and two males were detained as it was established that neither had an entitlement to be in the UK or to work in the UK.

Both denied working at the premises, but admitted living above the premises.

One male had been detained in the kitchen area of the premises and had what appeared to be food stains on the front of his clothing which gave the clear impression that he was working in the kitchens.

The other male was detained in the upper floors accommodation, whilst he denied working at the premises; a waiters uniform was found in the room that promoted the restaurant and implied that it belonged and was being used by this male.

The view of West Mercia Police is that due to the seriousness of this matter the premises licence for The Taste of Raj should be revoked.

Please tick yes
