M Describe the steps you intend to take to promote the four licensing objectives:

a) General – all four licensing objectives (b, c, d and e) (please read guidance note 9)

Prevention of Crime

CCTV will be provided in the form of a recordable system, capable of providing pictures of EVIDENTIAL QUALITY in all lighting conditions, particularly facial recognition.

Cameras shall encompass all ingress and egress to the premises, fire exits, outside areas, and all areas where the sale/supply of alcohol occurs.

Equipment MUST be maintained in good working order, be correctly time and date stamped, recordings MUST be kept in date order, numbered sequentially and kept for a period of 31 days and handed to Police on demand.

The DPS or appointed member of staff must be capable and competent at downloading CCTV footage in a recordable format EITHER DISC or VHS to the Police/Local Authority on demand.

The recording equipment and tapes/discs shall be kept in a secure environment under the control of the DPS or other responsible person.

The DPS or other responsible person nominated for the purpose will employ SIA door staff on a risk assessed basis. The risk assessment shall be in writing and shall be made immediately available on request to an 'authorised person' (as defined in the Licensing Act 2003) or Police.

The DPS or a person nominated in writing for the purpose; shall maintain a register of door supervisors which shall be kept on the premises showing the names and addresses of the door supervisors, their badge numbers and shall be signed by the door supervisors as they commence and conclude duty. The register shall be made available on demand for inspection by an 'authorised person' (as defined by the Licensing Act 2003), or the Police or an authorised officer of the SIA.

Public Safety

The Licensed premises shall not be used for any exhibition, demonstration or performance of hypnotism unless the hypnotist has been licensed by the relevant authority in England and Wales. Any performance must comply in accordance with any conditions attached to the licence.

The maximum permitted numbers of persons in the premises including staff shall not exceed the number set within the fire risk assessment for the premises.

Prevention of Public Nuisance

Noise of vibration shall not emanate from the premises so as to cause a nuisance.

The DPS or responsible person must immediately comply with any request to adjust noise levels/frequency spectra made by an 'authorised person' (as defined in the Licensing Act 2003) or the Police.

Prominent, clear and legible signage shall be displayed at all exits to the premises requesting that the public to respect the needs of local residents and leave the premises and area quietly.

The use of explosives, pyrotechnics and fireworks of a similar nature shall not be used at the premises without the written notification of the Licensing Authority.

No waste such as bottles of refuse shall be placed outside the premises between the hours of 2200hours and the end of licensable activities.

The DPS or responsible person must immediately comply with any request to adjust noise levels/frequency spectra made by an authorised person (as defined by Licensing Act 2003)

Protection of children from harm

The premises will operate, as a minimum, a challenge 21 policy. Such policy shall be written and kept at the premises. The policy shall be produced on demand of an 'authorised person' (as defined by the Licensing Act 2003) or the police or an authorised Trading Standards Officer of Herefordshire Council. Prominent, clear, legible signage shall also be displayed at all entrances to the premises as well as at, at least one location behind any bar advertising the scheme operated.

No adult entertainment or services or activities must take place at the premises.

All children to be accompanied by a responsible adult.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

CCTV will be provided in the form of a recordable system, capable of providing pictures of EVIDENTIAL QUALITY in all lighting conditions, particularly facial recognition.

Cameras shall encompass all ingress and egress to the premises, fire exits, outside areas, and all areas where the sale/supply of alcohol occurs.

The recording equipment and tapes/discs shall be kept in a secure environment under the control of the DPS or other responsible person.

The DPS or other responsible person nominated for the purpose will employ SIA door staff on a risk assessed basis. The risk assessment shall be in writing and shall be made immediately available on request to an 'authorised person' (as defined in the Licensing Act 2003) or Police.

The DPS or a person nominated in writing for the purpose; shall maintain a register of door supervisors which shall be kept on the premises showing the names and addresses of the door supervisors, their badge numbers and shall be signed by the door supervisors as they commence and conclude duty. The register shall be made available on demand for inspection by an 'authorised person' (as defined by the Licensing Act 2003), or the Police or an authorised officer of the SIA.

c) Public safety

The Licensed premises shall not be used for any exhibition, demonstration or performance of hypnotism unless the hypnotist has been licensed by the relevant authority in England and Wales. Any performance must comply in accordance with any conditions attached to the licence.

The maximum permitted numbers of persons in the premises including staff shall not exceed the number set within the fire risk assessment for the premises.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

Noise of vibration shall not emanate from the premises so as to cause a nuisance.

The DPS or responsible person must immediately comply with any request to adjust noise levels/frequency spectra made by an 'authorised person' (as defined in the Licensing Act 2003) or the Police.
