		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The work on children's mental health is prioritised by the committee and includes a review of school pastoral support and a mental health pathway for looked after children; • Further detailed examination of the outcomes of the survey is undertaken to determine how the provision and effectiveness of mental health services were impacted during the lockdown; • An update is provided regarding the attendance rates after the return to school in September.
	Corporate parenting strategy 2020-2023	RESOLVED - That: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The wording of the bullet point in the care leavers covenant concerning commissioning and procurement required clarification; • A role for members of the council in respect of assisting looked after children could include the signposting of children in care and care leavers to local organisations offering work experience and apprenticeship opportunities; and • Priority 5 of the corporate parenting strategy should include mention of market towns, the involvement of local communities and the youth games. 	Detail from the cabinet report – 24 September <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This has been reworded to provide clarity • This is to be considered by councillors. • Priority 5 applies across the County and consideration of children and young people taking part in the youth games can be considered as part of the feasibility assessment.
15 September 2020	Accommodation and support framework for care leavers	RESOLVED: That the committee: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Welcomes and supports the proposal for the accommodation and support framework for care 	Update from Ewen Archibald – 7 November

		leavers; and <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recommends that the timetable for the introduction of the framework is reviewed and a view reached if it is too ambitious or realistic and achievable. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reflecting on the timescales required to establish the proposed framework effectively, cabinet members have determined that there will be a change to the timetable for mobilising. The decision to be considered by Cabinet retains the original timetable for procurement. However, when the framework is launched in early April, it is now proposed that it operates in shadow form for three months with other purchasing arrangements continuing in parallel. This will allow time to test some elements and phase in controls and features. The framework will be fully operational from July 2021.
	Review of performance and progress against the safeguarding and family support improvement plan 2020/2021	RESOLVED: That the committee: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recommends that the executive considers the possibility of a working group to examine the issue of recruitment in Herefordshire, to include a focus on the recruitment of social workers and to engage with projects currently in progress; and • Requires that meeting dates are reviewed to ensure more up to date performance data is presented to meetings of the committee. 	There is a Children's social worker recruitment and retention working group which meets regularly to address this matter. It is chaired by Andy Gill and includes attendees from the directorate as well as Recruitment and Organisation Development. Examples of its recent work include updating and promoting the 'core offer' for social workers and developing service workforce development strategy to ensure that recruitment, retention and service needs are addressed holistically.
	Review of peer on peer abuse	That the committee:

	cases	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Calls on the executive to consider the recommendations of the committee during its finalisation of the Peer on Peer Review Herefordshire MASH 2017 - 2019 report; • Recommends that the report is strengthened to provide an explanation as to why the CSO report of April 2017 was not circulated to schools prior to the commencement of the summer term in 2017 together with the risk assessment template. An explanation as to why it was not shared or mentioned at the peer on peer abuse in schools spotlight review is also required. The use of the term 'unhelpful', to describe the decision to not share the report, should be reconsidered and a stronger term adopted; • Recognises that risk posed to victims of peer on peer abuse is not merely physical but also emotional and psychological. In light of the handling of some cases detailed in the review report the committee recommends that there is a reassessment of the finding in the review that no children were put or left at risk; • Retains a watching brief, through the quarterly performance report, on the reporting rates of peer on peer abuse and the performance of the council in response to reported cases. This progress will be monitored at meetings of the children and families performance challenge. Any concerns with reporting rates or the performance of the council will prompt a report to the following meeting of the committee to

		explain concerning trends; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recommends that the Response to Reports flowchart for Herefordshire schools (appendix 1 of the review report) is enhanced with yes and no actions and is regularly scenario-tested with schools by the council. The flowchart should incorporate details of individuals accountable for actions and timelines for the completion of actions; • Recommends that schools that do not implement the model policy are held to account for the decision not to implement. Schools should be encouraged to share any policy which they feel supersedes or is superior to the model policy produced by the council; • Recommends that when consideration is given to the process of reconciliation there should be an assessment of long and short term processes to provide a variable response tailored to needs of children and families affected by peer on peer abuse. A longer term process would provide for comprehensive engagement with children and families who required and requested this level of reconciliation. A shorter term process would provide for those children and families who did not want or did not need to engage with the longer term approach • Recommends that a comprehensive plan of help and support for victims of peer on peer abuse and their families is developed by the council. This should include detail of what ongoing mental health support for children and families would be available. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recommends that clarification is provided in the report around the distinction between policy and guidance. There should be an explanation of who was responsible for: providing peer on peer abuse policies for use in Herefordshire schools; the adoption of such policies; the production of guidance; and the sharing of new guidance. • Recommends that the timelines in the recommendations in the review report should be finalised and include the title of those officers responsible for actions. • Recommends that a summary is provided at the foot of the review report detailing the scrutiny committee's recommendations and providing a recognition that the report was the start of a process to understand and address peer on peer abuse in Herefordshire. The summary should explain that not all elements of peer on peer abuse were understood and that improved data gathering, new guidance and new processes were being developed to attempt to come to terms with and address the issue.
