

RE with intent and impact: creative, thoughtful RE that makes a difference!

Tuesday 15th June 2021 ONLINE

9.15am-3.45pm

A day of inspiring support and ideas for your RE classroom. A suite of practical ideas and guidance for implementing the new agreed syllabus, from long-term planning to classroom practice. Clear advice on what makes for rich, engaging RE for you and your pupils – as well as meeting Ofsted requirements.

9.15-10.15 Keynote 1: Ofsted and RE Fiona Moss

In the light of the 2019 Ofsted Framework, and using the new Herefordshire agreed syllabus, how can we show the intent, implementation and impact of RE? Thoughtful ideas to consider and implement in your school.

10.30-11.30 Workshop A: Teaching about Muslims and Hindus: practical strategies Stephen Pett

Using stories, art and activism to open up some of the core concepts in the syllabus, encountering something of the diversity of Muslim and Hindu living.

11.45-12.45 Workshop B: RE and climate justice. Fiona Moss

How do religions view the natural world? How should people treat it? Why have things gone wrong? A thoughtful, dynamic, practical session that will harness your pupils' concerns for global climate justice and explore some religious and secular ethical issues and responses.

1.45-2.45 Workshop C: Multidisciplinary RE Stephen Pett

Ofsted have started talking about 'disciplinary knowledge' or 'ways of knowing'. What does this actually look like, and how can we do it in the current syllabus? Practical ideas & resources on festivals and ideas of God.

3.00-3.45 Keynote 2: RE updated! What is going on in the world of RE?

An introduction to some of the key developments in the RE world, including the idea of worldviews. Opportunities for on-going support for RE will be presented, including online resources and local teacher groups. A boost for the next academic year!

Copies of all resources used on the day will be available to take away, and electronic copies available to download afterwards. A range of resources will be available to purchase or order on the day.

Who is it for?

The conference is aimed at teachers of RE from primary schools, including subject leaders and head teachers. It will also be valuable for governors to find out about and explore best practice in RE.

Aims:

- To explore excellent practice for implementing the Herefordshire and Worcestershire Agreed Syllabus for RE, in the context of the new Ofsted Framework
- To provide practical support and guidance to schools in thinking about the intent of the syllabus and planning creative, challenging, thoughtful RE to implement it, increasing pupils' knowledge and understanding, as well as their personal development
- To give teachers confidence in planning and delivering great RE, deepening subject knowledge and skills
- To model examples of thoughtful RE, challenging all pupils and promoting deeper thinking

Cost: £95 per school. Attend as a staff for all or part of the day!
