

Statement of Truth

I am Paul Robert HURST and I live at 17 Burgess Street, LEOMINSTER HR6 8DE.

I live behind the Shooters Bar in LEOMINSTER and have lived here since January 2014. My house is about eight foot from the back wall of Shooters.

In fairness it used to be terrible here because of the noise. The previous tenants used to refuse to pay their rent here because it was so awful.

However, this all changed when Jon RUDGE took over the Bar. First, he put in some groundwork and then most recently in 2019 he removed an unsafe old chimney, resealed and repainted the building and then put in loads of insulation.

The difference has been tremendous – you wouldn't believe it. I've got no noise complaints about the place whatsoever. It's been like night and day. We don't have any noise issues here at all anymore.

This is a statement of truth dated 14th March 2020.
