Equality Considerations	Equality duty
	Under section 149 of the Equality Act 2010, the 'general duty' on public authorities is set out as follows:
	A public authority must, in the exercise of its functions, have due regard to the need to -  a) eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under this Act;  b) advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it;  c) foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.  The public sector equality duty (specific duty) requires us to consider how we can positively contribute to the advancement of equality and good relations, and demonstrate that we are paying 'due regard' in our decision making in the design of policies and in the delivery of services. Our providers will be made aware of their contractual requirements in regards to equality legislation.
	The decision to fund the supply and installation of two Speed Indicator Devices (SID) on the westbound approach of the A438 in Tarrington will go towards mitigating on-going problems and provide a safer routes for the public and local community.
Highlight any associated risks/finance/legal/considerations:	<ul> <li>No delivery oversight – project funded by S106 but installation managed by the Parish Council.</li> <li>Cost variation – Project has an assigned budget which it cannot exceed.</li> <li>Unforeseen events/costs – Potential unknown or unforeseen costs could lead to an overspend. The S106 contribution is finite, any overspend would need to be provided by additional funding sources.</li> </ul>
Details of any alternative options considered and rejected:	Not to fund.  This option is not recommended. Not to approve would lead to delays in delivery of Section 106 projects.  Alternative projects were not considered due to the specific requirements of the S106 agreement.
Details of any declarations of interest made:	None declared.
