Education Skills and Development / Commissioning

	and the actions local authorities are taking to address this.
40.	Under the Education Act (EA) 1996 Section 14A, added by Section 3 of Education and Inspections Act (EIA) 2006 it requires local authorities reasonably to consider parental representations regarding the provision of schools.	Director for children and families; Assistant director education development and skills; Interim education and capital manager	The local authority must respond accordingly, including outlining any proposed action, or where it is considered action is not needed, to explain the reasons for this.
41.	Under the Education Act 1996 Section 19 (3A) and (3B). Secondary: Education (Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils) England Regulations 2007(SI 2007/1870) introduced measures to make exclusions more effective	Director for children and families; Assistant director education development and skills; Head of additional needs	These measures were introduced to make exclusions a more effective sanction and to reduce the disruption to a child's education caused by exclusion.
42.	To ensure that funding follows the pupil in the case of an exclusion as required under the Education Act 1996 Section 494. Section 47 of the Schools Standards and Framework Act 1998. Secondary - The School Finance (England) Regulations 2008 (No. 228). The School Finance (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2007 (No. 365). The Education (Amount to Follow Permanently Excluded Pupil) (Amendment) (England) Regulations 2001 (No. 870). Secondary - The School Finance (England) Regulations 2006 (No. 468). The School Finance (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2007 (No. 365).	Director for children and families; Assistant director education development and skills; Head of additional needs	The funding is to be transferred to the admitting school or the local authority's central schools budget (if the pupil is not admitted within a set timescale to another school) to ensure that there is at least some funding available to contribute to the costs incurred by the new provider. The regulations also deal with excluded pupils who are subsequently educated in another local authority. This is intended to ensure that where an excluded pupil is reinstated in the school from where they had been permanently excluded, an appropriate level of funding is reallocated to the school.
43.	To ensure that children who cannot (for whatever reason) be in mainstream education, continue to receive a suitable education under Education Act 1996 Section 19 and schedule 1	Director for children and families; Assistant director education development and skills; Head of additional needs	Secondary - Enactment regulations apply other areas of education law to Pupil Referral Unit (PRU). (Section 19 has been amended by section 3 of the Children Schools and Families Act 2010). Section 3 of the Children Schools and Families Act 2010 amends section 19 EA 1996 to provide that all children to whom the section 19 EA 1996 duty applies should receive full time provision (with an exception for medical needs). This provision has not yet been commenced.

44.	Under the Education Act 1996, schedule 1. Secondary - Education (Pupil Referral Units) (Management Committees etc.) England Regulations 2007. Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Pupil Referral Units) England Regulations 2008 there is a requirement for the local authority to establish management committees for every pupil referral unit	Director for children and families; Assistant director education development and skills; Head of additional needs	This is to improve their management of PRUs, by giving them similar responsibilities to governing bodies of mainstream schools.
45.	Education Act 1996 Section 3A, as amended by Section 3 of the Children and Families Act 2010 imposes a duty that any pupils placed in alternative provision by a local authority receive full-time education unless it is not in the child's interests.	Director for children and families; Assistant director education development and skills; Head of additional needs
46.	Education Act 1996 Section 447 provides a basis for an Education Supervision Order which can help where parents find it difficult to exercise a proper influence over their child, and where the child has developed a pattern of irregular attendance.	Director for children and families; Assistant director education development and skills; Head of additional needs	It gives the backing of the court to the supervising officer and can help bring home to parents the need to fulfil their responsibilities for their child's education.
47.	Under Education Act 1996 Section 436A the local authority has the duty to identify children missing education.	Director for children and families; Assistant director education development and skills; Head of additional needs; Head of learning and achievement; Elective home education officer; Family support service manager (E&C) Court manager (ECC)
