

Question from M Bucknell, J Barton, T Heath and K Worsley, Hereford

It has come to our notice following the recent Canoe Club planning application that the Hereford and District Angling Association (HDAA) claimed to own riparian rights that will not only affect riverside property owners but also the rights of all citizens to access the River Wye.

Is Hereford Council supporting the HDAA in pursuit of their claim?